

Software Developer Software Developer Software Developer San Angelo, TX Highly-skilled software development professional bringing more than 15 years in software design, development and integration. Work Experience Software Developer MultiChem - Houston, TX February 2008 to March 2019 Collaborated on all stages of systems development lifecycle, from requirements gathering to production releases. Designed, implemented and monitored web pages and sites for continuous improvement in fast-paced environment. Converted application mockups into HTML, JavaScript, Ajax, .Net and JSON applications. Collaborated with other developers to identify and alleviate number of bugs and errors in software. Helpdesk support for hardware, software (Microsoft Office products), internal applications and iPhone support. Designed and developed reports using SQL Server Reporting Services. Detail-oriented, organized, quick learner and able to work at a fast-pace with tight deadlines. Mobile application software development, design and prototyping. Evaluated code to ensure that it is valid and is properly structured. Administer, manage and configure web, SQL, and windows servers. Developed databases that supported Web and Windows applications. Mentored and managed offshore contractors and assigned daily tasks. Developed asp.net forms and SQL scripts that significantly decreased data entry and transactional processing. Wrote fleet workflow application to track, purchase and approve movement of trucks, trailers, forklifts, tanks, tools etc. Planned and scheduled network downtime for maintenance. Requested, managed and implemented SSL Certificates for Web servers. Converted Microsoft Access application to a web based application with SQL database as the backend to enhance application performance and availability. Successful in maintaining close working relationship with customers, vendors and contractors. Web Developer Verizon - San Angelo, TX April 2001 to February 2008 Supported onsite and offsite employees find solutions to issues they may be having with software. Designed, built and maintained Web sites and company databases, using authoring or scripting languages and digital media. Backed up files, Databases, Web sites to optical disk drives for instant recovery in case of problems. Performed Web Application security testing on all new products. Identified problems uncovered by testing or customer feedback and corrected problems. Aided the team in creating and updating our department's internal website as well as perform presentations/training sessions to remote company offices. Performed website/windows applications testing and updates according to planned schedule prior to publishing to production servers. Trained new employee on systems, software, and services. Created, handled and monitored trouble tickets using custom online ticketing system, routed tickets, and participated in support bridges with on-call groups during outages. Performed upgrades, updates and patches to servers, pc's and laptops as well as software updates and performed wiring of network connections.

Collaborated with department managers to create monthly reports for workforce planning. Automated our ordering system from a dot matrix printer to a digital format, scanned (screen scraping) the data and imported into a database thus reducing headcount and errors. I was part of the on-call support staff for departmental servers. Education Associate of Applied Science in Business Howard College - Big Spring, TX May 1990 Skills DATABASE, MICROSOFT ACCESS, SQL, SQLITE, INTERFACE DESIGN, DATA MANAGEMENT, EXCEL, MICROSOFT OFFICE, SOFTWARE TESTING Additional Information SKILLS Interface design and implementation Mobile Development Net development SQL Database Microsoft Access Planning Microsoft Office products Data management Software testing SQLite Database Excel Troubleshooting

Name: Krista Keller MD

Email: mcculloughalicia@example.com

Phone: (562)286-7413