

Software Developer Software Developer Software Developer Madison, WI Experienced full stack developer seeking a position that offers a concentration on end user experience and usability. Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Software Developer Epic Systems - Madison, WI June 2010 to August 2016 Designed & implemented large full stack enhancement projects for Emergency Department software Delivered patient safety critical bug fixes on tight timelines Mentored & trained new software developers Reviewed other developers design proposals and provide feedback on both technical and usability concerns Assisted clinicians on the floor during system go-lives and troubleshooting issues Evaluated the existing software for usability and designed usability overhaul projects Volunteer ESL - Madison, WI January 2013 to May 2014 Weekly one on one ESL tutoring with adult students Taught pronunciation, vocabulary, and grammar, tailored for the learner's specific needs and interests Licensing Intern Office of Technology Commercialization - Austin, TX November 2009 to May 2010 Researched markets and patent landscape for new engineering & computer science technologies Interpreted technical research disclosures and wrote non-confidential, public marketing profiles Researched potential licensees and marketed technologies Software Intern Cisco Systems Inc - Austin, TX May 2008 to December 2008 Created automated tests and logged and tracked tickets to completion Verified time-sensitive software patches for major clients Wrote and maintained sample IP telephony applications for customer facing wiki in Java & C# Designed and produced instructional software videos of these applications with Adobe Captivate Education Bachelor of Science in Computer Science The University of Texas at Austin - Austin, TX May 2010 Skills .NET, Java, Relational Databases Additional Information Skills: C#, JavaScript, Cach , Java, VB6, SQL, PHP, Tortoise SVN, Scrum

Name: Rachel Grant

Email: hornelauren@example.org

Phone: 781-374-6688x280