

Associate Associate Euclid, OH I have had many jobs that didn't give monetary value but added to my professional life. Things like being active in sports has made me a all around competitor and team member, I love striving for a common goal with other people. Being a basketball coach for the youth has given me patience and great problem solving and analyzing skills. Selling food at games and events had showed me how to handle money and greet people with warmth. These lessons and many more have lead me to believe I could be of value to any company and/or place of business. They and along with these lessons will push me to be a better me everyday.
