

Project, Community Manager Project, Community Manager Project, Community Manager - Broadcast.gg Austin, TX Work Experience Project, Community Manager Broadcast.gg - San Francisco, CA October 2017 to Present Remote - Based in San Francisco, CA Managed an international team of casters, producers, and teams to provide daily practice and coverage of amateur Overwatch for 1600+ members. Recruit casters, tournament organizers, and teams allowing Broadcast.gg to expand to European and South African audiences. Overhauled the community Discord server to increase engagement and improve resource management for members. Reorganized internal workflows and documentation allowing the company to easily onboard new managers and enter new markets. SAP Material Master - Chemours - Ingleside, TX October 2017 to November 2018 Ingleside, TX Designed and implemented a SAP parts database reducing time spent on critical repairs. Developed project metrics within Excel allowing the company to target key areas and reorganize the workflow. Corresponded with project vendors, ensuring worker safety through documentation accuracy. Programming Teacher, IT Admin Einstein School - Plano, TX July 2016 to August 2017 Designed and implemented a maintenance program for computers, printers, and projectors. Oversaw updates and upgrades to existing equipment for both hardware and software. Created tutorial videos for staff, students, and parents for software used throughout the school. Authored and taught AP Computer Science and Web Development to middle and high school students. Ran a bi-weekly after school DnD club for students promoting critical thinking and socialization. Education University of Texas at Dallas - Dallas, TX August 2012 to December 2016 Bachelor of Science in Information Technology and Systems in Information Technology and Systems Naveen Jindal School of Management UT

Name: Kayla Campbell

Email: bthompson@example.org

Phone: 5229986674