

IT Project Manager IT Project Manager Construction Professional with a college education and will complete a masters in construction management Raleigh, NC Work Experience IT Project Manager Allbridge - Raleigh, NC May 2019 to July 2019 Provided Technical Level III desktop, laptop, telecommunication and network support to a large array of end-users for hospitality networks and IOT devices. Lead system and data integration on multiple database's Leads team as network & technology support project manager for IOT devices, Android IOS, Linux OS, and Windows OS/Office 365 systems Utilizes past experiences and education to bridge knowledge gaps in other departments Increased stability of company servers, vm, phones, and internet services Selected to serve as project manager for all aspects of Hilton's Connected Room initiative, chosen over tenured employees, generating over $2.3M of revenue for the company Coordinates with cross functional team to remove all roadblocks for product development team, resolving supply chain issues, cleared invoicing back log increasing cash flow Inherited project that was 60 days behind schedule, implemented processes to get current within two weeks of starting with the company. Contributed to the success of department from day one, receiving accolades from several directors, SVPs and the CEO Pioneered code of conduct for sub-contractors, dictating expectations for performance, increased accuracy of site surveys by 90% Construction Project Manager North Carolina State University - Raleigh, NC February 2019 to May 2019 Working as a Project Manager for informal construction projects utilizing contractors, in-house forces, or a combination of both. Also managed formal projects occasionally Oversaw projects while maintaining budgets that ranged from $0 to $250,000 Workflow management of construction projects utilizing contractors, in-house forces, or a combination of both. Provided oversight on minor to large projects & served as liaison between different departments Implemented the use of AutoCad and other systems for project design/development Facilitated schedules, budgets, design, and other key project materials for different construction projects. Studied plans for multiple projects to effectively prepare for construction Interpreted plans for building, as-builts, and upgrades. Chaired a team in multiple project coordination efforts Construction Project Manager Herring Construction & Remodeling - Benson, NC May 2018 to February 2019 Working as a superintendent for construction projects utilizing contractors, subcontractors, and other forces to complete projects in all trades. Directed Senior Leadership in all aspects Supervised a multi-trade organization that were involved in a large array of services. Developed schedules, budgets, design, and other key project materials for different construction projects. Controlled multiple projects that were taking place simultaneously Accountable for the home building process and remodeling projects from beginning to the end. Plumbing Technician Campbell University Facilities Management - Buies Creek, NC November 2016 to May 2018 Higher education maintenance for plumbing department providing services in multiple commercial facilities. Developed effective technical skills Improved and maintained infrastructures Enhanced pump systems, and equipment ranging from low to high voltages Replaced lines, equipment, and electrical motors needed for daily functions of mechanical materials Construction Materials Testing Field Technician Froehling & Robertson, Inc - Raleigh, NC July 2016 to November 2016 Materials testing for new home development projects and site creation. Prepared detailed and complete field reports Performed basic laboratory tests on soil and concrete Evaluated site and subgrade conditions on construction projects and provide recommendations Communicated with clients, contractors, and engineering and technician staff regarding construction issues Maintenance Worker I City of Raleigh Parks & Recreation - Raleigh, NC August 2013 to October 2014 Local government position completing tasks as set by the supervisor on greenway trail system. Specialized in park maintenance and upkeep Developed strategies in systems of construction for the greenway structures for a large city local government Education Bachelor of Science in Information Technology in Information Technology Campbell University Skills Site development, Autocad, Plumbing, Hvac, Process improvement, Coaching Links <https://www.linkedin.com/in/eric-ward-9202aa71> Additional Information Skills Construction Plumbing Electrical Leadership Project Management AutoCAD Plan reading Site Development HVAC Coaching Process Improvement Supervision Planning

Name: Christopher Marshall

Email: jsteele@example.com

Phone: +1-860-240-8936x377