

Web Developer Volunteer Web Developer Volunteer Kent, WA Empowered by innovations, a growth minded software engineer, with full-stack knowledge and experience in building distributed (n-tier) applications. Relentlessly driven to solve hard problems in creative ways and be a team player to achieve success. Thrives in a continuous integration, test driven, and team-based environment where each person can be given independence to lead and grow. Work Experience Web Developer Volunteer Washington Technology Industry Association January 2019 to March 2019 Contributed in an agile team of 5 as a Full-Stack Developer over 2-week sprint iteration Goal of this project was to implement an automate the process of organizing and matching tech industry Speakers to high school classes to inspire children to get involved with programming. This platform serves to match volunteers and speaking opportunities. Let schools communicate opportunities and logistics, etc Self-Project- Student Database Java program: A Program that enrolls any Number Students, (gives them Student ID, Input classes, Gives them a total price for the classes taken). Education Bachelor of Applied Science in Software Development Green River College - Auburn, WA 2007 to Present Skills HTML5, JQuery, Javascript, PHP, Front End, JavaScript, Java, SQL, HTML, Cascading Style Sheets (CSS), MySQL, Software Development, jQuery, PHP, XML, Data Structures, Algorithms, Bootstrap, JSON, Web Development, Databases, Object-Oriented Programming (OOP), Systems Programming, Full-Stack Development, Agile Methodologies, HTML5, Leadership Links <https://www.linkedin.com/in/david-nagy-20028916b> <https://github.com/davidmnagy27>

Name: Brandi Gonzalez

Email: cordovareginald@example.org

Phone: 001-215-350-7588x0697