

Network Security Analyst Network Security Analyst Network Security Analyst - Fidelity Information Services Orlando, FL To obtain a network security position where I can make use of my technical, problem solving, and leadership skills as well as continue professional development. Work Experience Network Security Analyst Fidelity Information Services - Orlando, FL February 2010 to Present Configured, monitored, and maintained Fortigate firewalls. Implemented Splunk for log management, data correlation, and alerting. Administered RSA tokens for dual authentication to IPSec and SSL VPNs. Monitored over 100 Fortigate firewalls for security incidents. Wrote the Security Framework document for the FIS-AI Secure group. Created a build plan document that standardized firewall and UTM configuration settings. Designed the internal-IDS product offering for the AI Secure group. Took part in design calls for potential customers. Served as team lead and handled escalations. Trained new employees both for the engineering and analyst side of AI Secure. Super Bowl IT Intern National Football League - Tampa, FL January 2009 to February 2009 Provided basic computer support for NFL and media personnel in Tampa. Imaged and deployed machines for the four NFL held locations. Worked with the various IT departments to ensure a successful Super Bowl. Computer Technician Intern Internal Revenue Service - Maitland, FL June 2006 to September 2008 Provided computer support for over 250 users in four of the Florida offices. Provided onsite and remote assistance both by phone and with the use of remote desktop tools. Freely offered technical guidance and advice in the form of oral and written communication to management and co-workers. Treated all personnel with respect and went "the extra mile" to provide technical assistance when needed. Education Bachelor of Science in Networking and Communication Management DeVry University - Orlando, FL June 2009

Name: Scott Moss

Email: cheryl07@example.net

Phone: +1-366-953-0915x81162