

MBA Internship - Strategy MBA Internship - Strategy MBA Internship Boston, MA My prior work experience in large multinational corporations, in the banking industry, and lastly as a co-founder has provided me with the necessary tools to succeed in a competitive, complex and dynamic environment: During my time at KPMG, I participated and led various types of projects, including plans for business continuity and disaster recovery, penetration tests, quality assurance, analysis and optimization of IT costs, improving IT processes, internal audits and also gave advice on compliance with local and international regulations (Sarbanes-Oxley, SAS70). At JPMorgan Argentina, I led the bank's internal and external audits during a particular time of political crisis. With excellent results, I was recognized as a high-potential individual by my direct and division managers due to my extraordinary performance in managing the audits. I have consistently shown the ability to make a positive impact leading teams. My experience as co-founder of a technological startup gave me a unique ability to apply technology, in all its forms, to business processes. I had to develop platforms and plans for fundraising, sales, finance, marketing and IT development. This whole experience was an incredible growth opportunity. I attained valuable skills and learnings on how to initiate, create, run and lead a small business, not only through our achievements, but also through our mistakes. I gained insights into the internal workings of a company, on how to manage people, but most importantly, how to persevere in the face of adversity. My last summer internship was in a FinTech Company in Singapore called Collectius CMS where I was able to experience the potential of the industry. Work Experience MBA Internship - Strategy COLLECTIUS CSM - Singapore May 2018 to July 2018 Contributed to the strategy, business evolution, and long-term efficiency of the offices in Singapore, Malaysia and Philippines.
