

SCRUM MASTER SCRUM MASTER SCRUM MASTER Marietta, GA I have led and been responsible for the technical delivery of many software projects and online products. I work closely with colleagues to ensure solutions and services are fit for purpose, secure, usable, maintainable and scalable. I have a strong awareness of the technical intricacies of software development, which is a strength when working closely with technical disciplines, such as web developers, software engineers, technical architects and visual designers. I strive to ensure that deliverables integrate with existing software platforms, dependency roadmaps and governance structures. TOOLS Jira
