

Information Security Analyst Information Security Analyst Information Security Analyst - NASA Ames Research Center Sunnyvale, CA Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Information Security Analyst NASA Ames Research Center - Mountain View, CA May 2017 to Present Support the IT Security Division in all aspects of Security Operations and Projects. Assisted in Incident response, computer forensics, patch management, and vulnerability management. Phishing research and testing. Assist with security research of securing NASA's Unmanned Aerial Systems team. Configure and manage an IDS/IPS system. Generate reports and white papers of research. Conduct outreach and awareness training for NASA employees Military Programs Project Support Intern NASA Ames Research Center - Mountain View, CA June 2016 to May 2017 Created data visualization tools and developed dashboard to help connect NASA and Navy personnel. Gave speeches/presentations. Engaged in STEM advocacy and outreach. Mentor other interns. Interfaced with high level staff in NASA and Navy for a variety of projects and purposes, supported project managers in the investigation, planning and implementation of projects IT Intern UserTesting - Mountain View, CA October 2015 to January 2016 Computer prep and imaging, front line IT support, user license management and compliance (SFDC all users get individual licenses). Assist with network infrastructure compliance upgrade. Including adding centralized user management for network switches, firmware updates and operational audit Education Bachelor's in Computer Science San Francisco State University - San Francisco, CA January 2016 to Present SFSU

Name: Marvin Gregory

Email: grahamjames@example.net

Phone: 600.558.5265