

Senior Server & VMWare Admin Senior Server & VMWare Admin VMWare and System Admin Renton, WA I have a deep understanding of the functions needed to be a successful system administrator. With a wide background in many subject areas I can handle the data center operations from practically every aspect. I am seeking a challenging and rewarding environment to grow my talent. Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Senior Server & VMWare Admin Central Transport - Ontario, CA June 2014 to Present Overview: I plan and head major projects as well as assist with hardware and application outages. I am the senior technical resource for projects, and also assisted on issues that escalated beyond helpdesk. I reported directly to the Senior Datacenter Manager and the CIO. My scope is not just for Central Transport but all CentralInc. Companies and their respective IT resources. Responsibilities: Attend to daily maintenance of our datacenter servers and applications SAN management (Left hand and Store-virtual) Work with senior datacenter manager on 3par SAN replacement Head and coordinate terminal server rollout for our insurance arm Manage and maintain esxi 5.1 and 5.5 clusters Manage backups, sql, exchange, and any other application or service provided to CentralInc. employees. Maintain physical hardware of datacenter including room environment (hvac, cleanliness, lighting, presentation, cable management/tagging, and security) Systems Administrator Network Source One - Wixom, MI March 2012 to June 2014 Overview: NSO is a third party IT solutions provider. Our clients would range in size from small to very large. Our clients range from single server to 100+ server environments, both physical and virtual. I had a firsthand experience with many different technologies and vendors in different environments. Responsibilities: Attend to server alerts (Service down, Drive Failures, ect ) Build/Repair/Deploy servers for new clients (Physical and Virtual) Perform maintenance and upgrades based on our clients service contracts Suggest upgrades or changes to clients as they needed or requested them Verify customer backups daily and general network monitoring Worked primarily on backup and virtualization projects for customers Systems Engineer GLP & Associates - Farmington, MI August 2008 to March 2012 Responsibilities Achievements: Deployed server 2k8 domain environment Built web applications field agents and internal accounting departments Created disaster recovery plan to secure our technical data Responsibilities: I was the helpdesk contact for all users in my building (about 45) Remote support for our field sales team including configuring mobile phones Monitor and sustain a stable Windows Server 2008 Environment Install Server based applications and use SCCM for updating machines Upgrade and maintain company hardware Help end user with issues and questions Install network printers, imaging devices, and fax machines Installed and configured network backbone for our office Helpdesk & Network Admin Interactive Financial - Troy, MI August 2005 to August 2008 Responsibilities: Manage and backup company data Image computers and servers as needed Planned and implemented server environment (AD, DNS, DHCP, File Server, Etc.) Help end user with issues and questions Configure Blackberry, Treo, and iPhone devices for company email Install network printers, imaging devices, and fax machines Keep track of equipment and department budget Education Oakland Community College Stanley Community College Skills vmware, active directory, backup, networking, dns, dhcp, storage, san, exchange, sql

Name: Kyle Shah

Email: camachobilly@example.net

Phone: 700-871-9304