

Database Administrator Database Administrator Aliso Viejo, CA Work Experience Database Administrator Sole Technology, Inc. - Lake Forest, CA August 2008 to Present MCITP: Database Administrator 2008 Perform installation, configuration, and maintenance of all database servers. Work with the Director of IT/Project Manager/Business Systems Analyst on a wide variety of projects related to database administration, application support, and report development. Responsible for securing database backups/transaction logs and monitoring adequacy of disk space. Perform all routine scheduled maintenance tasks against production databases (including the deployment of upgrades and patches). Monitor production environment and set up automated processes to improve overall data productivity. Resolve database performance, capacity, and replication issues. Maintain, performance tune and implement changes to the cube environments. Administer, maintain, develop and implement policies and procedures for ensuring the security and integrity of the company information housed in databases. Develop and maintain database audits used to alert business users of data integrity issues. Assist transactional users in resolving operational issues. Education Dimension Modeling In Depth Kimball University - San Diego, CA 2011 Implementing And Maintaining SQL Server 2008 University of California Extension - Information Technologies - Irvine, CA 2009 BS in Biology University of California, San Diego - San Diego, CA 2002 Skills MCITP: Database Administrator 2008, Database Backup & Restore, Performance Tuning, Database Maintenance & Security, T-SQL, SQL Profiler, SSIS, SSAS, Perfmon, Dynamics AX Security Links <http://www.linkedin.com/in/alexnguyendba>

Name: Cindy Taylor

Email: molly20@example.com

Phone: 571-909-2319