

Communications Executive Vice President Communications Executive Vice President

Communications Executive Vice President - Combat2College Jacksonville, FL Characterized as a skilled and savvy problem solver, with a carefully crafted reputation for a direct no-nonsense approach to generating verifiable cost savings through technology-based innovation. Seeking to acquire a position where my extensive experience can be leveraged to ensure success of an organization, while continually challenging me to further grow and expand my knowledge and capabilities. Technologies Applications: SAP, Ariba, Kofax Capture, Kofax KTM, Microsoft SQL

Server, IBM DB2 Content Manager, IBM Websphere, Microsoft IIS, VMWare VSphere OS Platforms: Microsoft Windows Server, Red Hat Linux, AIX Unix, OS390, OS400 Work Experience

Communications Executive Vice President Combat2College - Jacksonville, FL 2012 to Present volunteer position) Responsible for managing a multitude of IT related tasks, social media and traditional communications related to supporting success and growth of the nonprofit. Consultant

K-Tek Resourcing - Jacksonville, FL October 2015 to February 2019 Key member of team responsible for migrating IBM DB2 Content Manager and other custom-built applications into the CVS data center. Supported and stabilized environments accessed by 4000+ users. Participated in PCI, FCC, PHI ad PII audits and provided necessary information to auditors. Built new Content Manager environments, AIX and Windows Server 2016, in order to migrate to version 8.5.

Migrated additional content repositories into Content Manager. Developed a Disaster Recovery plan for the CM environments and successfully tested a full system recovery. Systems Engineer /

Systems Analyst / Solutions Architect / Team Lead Ralph Lauren Corporation - Greensboro, NC

March 2006 to October 2015 Effectively architected, engineered, and implemented a custom enterprise digital content management solution; including multiple integrations with SAP, that demonstrated significant savings and ongoing cost avoidance in excess of $1M. Proven ability to partner with staff from senior executives to line-level to design cost-effective custom solutions that meet or exceed business requirements, as well as, forge partnerships with consultants, developers, and administrators to architect and implement innovative sustainable solutions on a global scale.

Performed database administrator tasks, such as creating and updating tables using SQL on the Kofax and Content Manager databases. Key contributing team member engaged in the successful architecture and implementation of a Source-To-Pay solution utilizing Kofax, Ariba and SAP saving the Ralph Lauren finance teams thousands of dollars in procurement and invoicing costs. Systems Administrator Mirifex Systems - Columbus, OH September 2005 to January 2006 Performed systems administration tasks on 25 Windows 2003 Servers and Red Hat Linux servers for the Integrated Voice Response (IVR) system at Nationwide Insurance. The system administration tasks included; user and group creation in Active Directory, and installing and upgrading the IVR software.

Configured security settings for Apache Tomcat server running on Windows Server 2003 and Red Hat Linux. Configured and documented reporting for the IVR applications. Network Engineer / Systems Engineer Ohio Casualty Group March 2004 to July 2005 Supported and maintained 200+ Windows NT/2000/2003 and Red Hat Linux servers running on the HP DL360, DL380, and DL580 server models. Deployed J2EE applications running on IBM Websphere 4.0 and 5.0 while troubleshooting potential issues. Implemented and supported the enterprise-wide Mailmax SPAM service. Responsible for maintenance and support of the enterprise fax solution Rightfax 8.5. Maintained Active Directory, DNS, and DHCP servers running on Windows 2003 Server. Researched and created plans for the implementation of VMWare ESX server. Installed, configured, and maintained Windows 2000/2003 servers with VMware GSX Server. Multiple Job Titles Ohio Casualty Group - Cincinnati, OH March 2001 to July 2005 Lotus Notes Administrator Ohio Casualty Group March 2001 to March 2004 Led extensive effort to improve performance of the Domino servers on the OS390 Mainframe with IBM. Served as the technical lead to migrate Domino from OS390 to Windows 2000. Responsible for maintaining and supporting an R5 and Domino 6.5 environment with 3500 mail users on 20+ Windows 2000 servers. Created and implemented standards for the Domino servers running on Windows 2000. Supported and implemented in-house developed and third-party applications. Implemented Lotus Sametime for use by the entire enterprise. Setup and configured the SMTP gateway to the Internet in order to facilitate mail for all users to and from the Internet. Setup and configured iNotes for use by users from any Internet connection using SSL. Senior Groupware Engineer Techsoft Systems, Inc -

Cincinnati, OH August 1998 to March 2001 at Procter & Gamble Member of team responsible for administration and maintenance of 400+ global Intranet servers, running Domino 4.63a, Domino R5 and IIS 4.0, in a Windows NT 4.0 and AIX environment. Assisted first and second level support with server and client issues with Notes, Netscape and Internet Explorer 5. Performed troubleshooting and repair of database corruption and design issues, Notes and NT access issues, and systemic Domino and NT issues.

Name: Samuel Grant

Email: qcrawford@example.net

Phone: (442)469-8703x4759