

Data Analyst Data Analyst Data Analyst - Darigold Sammamish, WA Work Experience Data Analyst
Darigold - Seattle, WA December 2016 to Present Act as first contact for all customer item data attribute requests and requirements. Lead the documentation, testing and training efforts for the product information management implementation (PIM) project. Support data integrity in the ERP system applications and application interfaces to all other business applications (including outsourced and custom). Interact with company users and user organizations to better understand business processes and needs for new item creation, item maintenance and deactivation in the PIM and integrated systems. Interact with requester / user during discovery, justification, design, development, testing and the ongoing operation of all new / upgraded integrated systems applications to ensure product quality, efficiency, user satisfaction and ownership. Interact with IT Development Team in defining and testing new report requirements using knowledge of application and table structure. Create testing scenarios and document results. Maintain up-to-date knowledge of application best practices, methods and techniques in the area of master data management. Participate in the development of curriculum, user education and training related to the PIM and data governance.

Database Administrator MAJIQ Inc - Redmond, WA May 2016 to October 2016 Perform application support, and Database (Microsoft SQL Server and Oracle) maintenance tasks. Develop procedures and scripts for continuous improvement, repeatable processes and database maintenance. Ensure consistency and completeness across customer systems. Collaborate with management to develop reports using SSRS Research technical problems and assist in identifying solutions. Interact with application teams and client personnel on technical issues. Provide expertise in SQL tuning, backup and recovery support, installation and configuration of Microsoft SQL Server & Oracle Facilitate resolution for production issues in the databases. Monitor and maintain database backups, optimization jobs, and integrity checks. Take corrective action as required. Identify and initiate process improvements.

Database Analyst
Reliance Network - Bellevue, WA March 2013 to May 2015 Developed and automated real estate data and photo imports from 600+ MLS data sources using FTP, DTS, SSMS, PowerShell, and other in-house tools Provided maintenance and management of all Microsoft SQL Agent jobs

Participated in the design, development, testing, and optimization of stored procedures, functions and other related database objects Provided support & guidance to the project and service team members with database design, development and testing of solutions Collaborated closely with DBAs and the coding team to conduct SQL code reviews and promote best practices for database design, SQL development, optimization, maintenance, monitoring, alerting Provided development support and troubleshoot database related issues in production Analyzed and filtered large, complex data sets using Excel, SQL tables, views and stored procedures Provided maintenance to legacy systems Developed and maintained stored procedures needed for reporting using SSRS

Education Management Information Systems Washington State University - Pullman, WA December 2012

Certifications/Licenses SQL Server Development January 2017 to August 2017

Additional Information Classes: Java Programming University of Washington 10/2017 - 06/2018 Python Programming University of Washington 01/2018 - 08/2018

Name: Michelle Clarke

Email: igomez@example.com

Phone: 001-741-234-9736