

Front End Developer Front End Developer Seeking anthropological opportunities Pittsford, NY For over two decades I have worked with the web. In that time I have developed, helped develop, or maintained all manner of sites across all spectrums. From the beginning steps of the original concept to finished product, and finally to product support. My primary focus is front- end web, static site generation, and prototype or mockup development. I am extremely tech and web savvy with advanced skills in a wide variety of tools and technologies. I am quick with my tasks, highly reliable, versatile, and due to my self-taught nature I can adapt or pick up anything I'm not familiar with very quickly. Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Front End Developer DiscoverOrg - Vancouver, WA September 2015 to March 2016 Part of a small dedicated team that maintains the DiscoverOrg web apps. Mostly worked on the front end client app which is a SPA built with Angular. Freelance Web Developer Self-Employed - Portland, OR September 1995 to June 2015 Created, modified, and maintained websites for clients such as ZoomCare. This included modifying sites using different CMSs, creating sites from scratch, and overhauling sites. Web Master La Salle Prep - Milwaukie, OR April 2014 to August 2014 Updated and managed the school website. I created new templates with workarounds to augment the design and functionality of the CMS. Completely overhauled the Admissions section. Helped to create a new school magazine website, including a custom static HTML generator. Assisted in scoping out new avenues, techniques, policies, and procedures for the site. Web Developer Off the Wall Media - Milwaukie, OR February 2010 to August 2010 Worked with clients to create, modify, and maintain their websites. Predominantly worked on and managed the front end of the various sites, such as Keen Healthcare, Corelight, and Fremont Vet. Helped build and maintain a couple Magento sites for clients. I also acted as an intermediary between clients or upper management and other developers.
