

Chief Technology Officer (CTO) Chief Technology Officer (CTO) Leadership is not about individuals; leadership is the legacy of empowering others to succeed. ~Uxorious Phoenix, AZ Success is based upon broad spectrum of experience that capitalizes diversity through innovation, teamwork, leadership, positive people skills and research. My ability to think outside the box, has tremendous positive impacts for organizations, including the only military/government IT organization that has been awarded CIO magazine s top 100 list. My successes have been a direct result of the outstanding teams that I have worked with.
