

Information Security Analyst Information Security Analyst Information Security Analyst - 32nd Generation IT Group LLC Aldie, VA Analytical and detail oriented IT security professional with over 5 years of hands-on experience with NIST RMF, security risk and controls, and FISMA requirements. I am also experienced in the application of security guidelines and best practices including the NIST special publications 800-37, 800-53, 800-53A, and SANS 20, etc. to support information security activities with the goal of reducing cyber risks and improving security operations.

Work Experience

Information Security Analyst 32nd Generation IT Group LLC - Ashburn, VA June 2015 to Present

Conducts self-assessments of security controls, identifies weaknesses and tracks remediation activities in Plan of Action and Milestones (POA&M) Expertise in reviewing GSS (General Support System), MA (Major Application), MA (Minor Application) firewall, IDS, various operating systems etc. Assists federal staff in assessing new applications, identifying applicable NIST SP 800-37 RMF requirements and advising system owners on the processes. Conducts NIST 800-53 controls testing by validating controls in accordance with security requirements Assess the Cyber Security risk of IT systems, documenting them in a formal risk assessment and supporting artifacts associated with the Assessment & Authorization (A&A) process Ensures annual Security Awareness training is completed by all system users, and role-based training and certification is provided to key security personnel to include AO, SO, ISSOs, System Administrators, and Incident Responders Provides a security review of system documentation, audit logs, rule set and configuration to validate policy compliance

Security Compliance/Risk Specialist ALLEGIANCE LLC March 2014 to June 2015

Ensured appropriate security controls were implemented to safeguard the confidentiality of clients' data Developed monthly presentations to management to update them on ongoing risk management efforts Monitored identity and access management processes, including the abuse of permissions by authorized system users Provided tier II incident response support and helped remediate security issues Performed research on emerging threats, and recommended process changes to mitigate risks Established and maintained strong working relationships to drive information security awareness and governance within the organization

Incident Management/ IT Analyst Kelly Services - Herndon, VA April 2010 to December 2013

Identified, documented, trouble shooted and escalated service requests per Company's problem management processes, resolution processes and SLAs Interpreted and resolved telephone, email, and internally assigned inquiries pertaining to the functional operation of supported client facing applications Responsible for monitoring client reported defects, capturing all relevant information and bringing it to management's attention to assist with prioritization and further analysis

Provided accurate incident & problem management reporting as required by using our internal IT Service Center ticketing system

Education Computer Science and Math Northern Virginia Community College - Sterling, VA July 2016 Bachelor of Art in Information Science University of Ghana May 2010

Skills Security, Hipaa, Nessus, Nist, Sox, access Additional Information

SUMMARY OF SKILLS Experience in security operations and incident response Experienced in NIST RMF processes Knowledgeable about SOX, HIPAA and other regulations Able to perform Security Control Assessment (SCA) planning and development Direct experience with tools such as Nessus, CSAM, GRC, etc. Strong analytical and time management skills Strong verbal/written communication and presentation skills Track record of multi-tasking and working with cross functional teams and senior management Strong computer skills (Windows, databases, etc.) Strong documentation and quality assurance background

Name: Elizabeth Hernandez

Email: sarahgraham@example.org

Phone: 695-389-4500