

Software Engineer Software Engineer Software Engineer - Justi Ventures Tbilisi Sponsorship required to work in the US Work Experience Software Engineer Justi Ventures June 2018 to Present

Created trading platform which connects the broker and trades with it. Created module for communication to the broker and supported most of the trading messages. Created parser module to convert the code from Mql4 code to C++. Wrote the code to make the communication between the client and the server secure. C/C++ Developer Nomachine March 2017 to June 2018 <https://www.nomachine.com> Worked in virtualization module which enables multiple clients to use a single computer with their own independent resources. Created administrator panel to enable controlling users from a single computer such as installing new software and allocating or restricting resources for all of them. Supported adding several types of drivers for virtual host. Supported the product for MACOS operating system. Python developer at Palatine Analytics June 2016 to March 2017 <https://www.palatineanalytics.com/> Wrote software simulator to generate data. Created graph generator based on simulated data. Adapted software with slack so that every action could be performed from slack. Awards: National Olympiad in Mathematics 1st place - 2009 year. 2nd place - 2010, 2011 years. 2nd grade prize - 2007, 2008 years. ACM Semi-finalist - 2013, 2015 years. 1st place in ACM quarter-finals in Georgia - 2015 year. Education Bachelor of Computer Science in Design Free University of Tbilisi June 2017 Skills Android, Git, MYSQL, CSS

Name: Kimberly Farmer

Email: peterssandra@example.net

Phone: 9537065229