Technical Specialist Technical Specialist Technical Specialist - Apple Work Experience Technical Specialist Apple 2018 to Present Deliver excellent communication across team and customer environments and successfully deliver   goals by developing relationships with clients and collaborating with the team Junior Web Developer, Firehose Project 2017 to 2017   Built chess game that fully enforces edge cases with Ruby on Rails on a startup team of 6   Created movement and obstruction algorithmic logic for respective chess piece roles, write tests that fully reinforce edge cases, and do manual QA to test performance and accuracy   Perform and execute by coding standards per protocol of the engineering team, keep existing logic functional and assist in testing and reviewing technical solutions Graduate Research Intern Rochester Institute of Technology 2014 to 2016 Supported deaf and hard of hearing students' learning through lectures and videos by writing lecture and media material with research resources to be displayed on Powerpoint Frontend Web Developer Intern Rochester Institute of Technology 2015 to 2015   Supported RIT lab system and Kelvin IST website in PHP and JavaScript and make fetches to asynchronous request handling using AJAX to make fast rendering partial page updates   Develop functional and appealing web and mobile-based applications based on usability using a combination of markup language and CSS for all modern browsers and platforms Education Developer Continuing Education Program University of California - Irvine, CA 2019 B.A. in Economics and Administration Studies in Economics and Administration Studies University of California - Riverside, CA 2011 to 2013 Skills HTML, JAVASCRIPT, BOOTSTRAP, NODE.JS, PHP, Apple Links http://abdullahalam.github.io

Name: Heather Gilbert

Email: joshuagray@example.org

Phone: 674.948.0993