Front End Developer Front End Developer Front End Developer - Armature Corporation Dulles, VA Work Experience Front End Developer Armature Corporation September 2016 to Present Developed reusable user interface components across multi-client projects using Aurelia ? Managed multiple projects and competing priorities in order to deliver tight deadlines ? Analyzed customer requirement breakdowns and worked with Project Managers and Quality Analysts to validate work against acceptance criteria ? Designed scope and job management UI custom solutions for The National Association of Testing Authorities ? Developed a new contact management workflow UI for the American Society of Mechnanical Engineers (ASME) ? Worked as a lead front end developer of a team of five to deliver ASME's custom application process solution for organizations to apply for accreditation/certification ? Developed public-facing directory UI for the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP) ? Customized ARMATURE Customer Portal, which enables customers to interact with the system and report tickets ? Learned Aurelia framework from the ground up, and became a chief contributor of the team with development, code review, and design responsibilities Education Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering in Industrial Engineering University of Washington - Seattle, WA September 2006 to June 2011 Skills Git, JAVASCRIPT, HTML5, JIRA Links http://www.linkedin.com/in/phillipdnguyen23 https://github.com/philmein23 Additional Information SKILLS Programming: JavaScript, CSS3, HTML5, Aurelia Framework, React.js Software: Adobe XD CC, Git, Jira Methodologies: Agile, Scrum

Name: Joanne Oconnor

Email: barbarafields@example.net

Phone: 001-813-520-4516