IT Security Analyst IT Security Analyst IT Security Analyst - ARC OF UNION COUNTY, Springfield City, NJ Newark, NJ An Information Security Professional that supports a wide varieties of security activities including supporting Assessment and Authorization (A&A) efforts under the NIST Risk Management Framework (RMF), Security Life Cycle and Vulnerability Management, review of security impact on change requests, review accounts for the systems under my purview. A proven project and team lead with aptitude for good customer service, and excellent communication skills. Other Key Areas of Competencies   * Experience with applying Information Assurance (IA) frameworks, including NIST RMF, NIST SP 800-53, NIST SP 800-37 to IT system development or assessments   * Knowledge of IA policies and procedures, including access control, incident response, contingency planning, or configuration and change management.   * Experience developing A&A documentation from scratch and performing security assessments   * Experience with administering, operating, or interpreting and analyzing results of vulnerability or configuration scans using tools such as Tenable Nessus * Experience with IT administration, IT Cybersecurity, or IT Help Desk   * Familiar with dealing with defense-in-depth, and other information security and assurance principles and associated supporting technologies   * Demonstrate proficiency in the following areas: multi-tasking, critical thinking; and the ability to work quickly, efficiently and accurately in a dynamic and fluid environment Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience IT Security Analyst ARC OF UNION COUNTY, Springfield City, NJ February 2019 to Present   Review policies and procedures for compliance with applicable standards and to identify areas of improvement for finding remediation.   Prepare, maintain, and implement system security plans for high-visibility information systems.   Identify key stakeholders in A&A efforts and ensure system documentation reflects current security configurations to include hardware and software components.   Conduct and complete an annual review of required HIPAA regulations and reports. Perform various Information Assurance support functions in support of the client's applications. Create and maintain documentation as it relates to network and server configuration, mapping, processes, and service records.   Set the standards for access controls, audit trails, event reporting, encryption and integrity controls.   Coordinate vulnerability remediation efforts with contractor and agency staff in order to remediate findings within specified deadlines and report findings in POA&M documents. Computer System Analyst UNIPARK CORP - Jersey City, NJ May 2018 to January 2019   Maintained responsibility for analyzing and continuously monitoring cybersecurity and privacy policies, programs, compliance artifacts, or standards to support security compliance, systems accreditation, and management.   Assisted customer program offices in interpreting and applying mitigation strategies.   Reviewed documentation to ensure compliance with regulatory cybersecurity requirements.   Led in the development/adoption and enforcement of information security policies, maintained cybersecurity procedures and processes as assigned.   Coordinated with contractor and department staff to provide requested artifacts for assessment-related engagements in a timely manner.   Developed core documents such as Security Plan, Contingency Plan, Incident Response Plan, and Standard Operating Procedures.   Provided primary support of Microsoft Exchange environments and related hardware and software.   Participated in incident response and process protocols including incident reporting and communicated the security posture of systems through designated reporting mechanism. IT Coordinator UNITED AMERICAN SECURITY - Union, NJ December 2017 to July 2018 Provided administrative support, such as status reporting and meeting meetings, preparing tender specifications and advised on the selection of computer hardware and software as required. ? Identified potential risks associated with environment of operations and advised on mitigation strategies through devices such as security cameras.   ? Conducted functionality and gap analyses to determine the extent to which key business areas and infrastructure comply with statutory and regulatory requirements. ? Reviewed documentation for accuracy and to ensure compliance with federal cybersecurity requirements. ? Assisted and facilitates any external security evaluations and inspections, providing the visiting teams with required information and other requirements. ? Provided help desk support to resolve application, hardware, connectivity issues at all locations. ? Ensured the availability, performance and security of IT systems and applications ? Performed risk analysis and management, documentation management and controls, information access controls and sanctions for failure to comply Software Quality Assurance Analyst HUDSON GREENE MARKET - Jersey City, NJ December 2016 to September 2017 Participated in the creation of quality assurance standards and making recommendations for changes to the processing systems. ? Maintained client-specific Plan of Action and Milestones and supports remediation activities as well as inventory of hardware and software for information systems. ? Ensured the availability, performance and security of IT systems. ? Identified, documented, prioritized, and addressed IT-related capability gaps & requirements to support the client's mission. ? Reviewed, implemented, and made recommendations for process improvements based on previously conducted business process analyses ? Maintained appropriate security measures and mechanisms to guard against unauthorized access to electronically stored and /or transmitted data and protect against reasonably anticipated threats and hazards. ? Ensured compliance through adequate training programs and periodic security audits. Data officer AC NIELSEN NIGERIA - Lagos, NG January 2007 to May 2015 Responsible for developing and governing our data and information strategy in order to drive business decisions and growth. ? Developed data procedures and policies, and worked closely with various departments to collect, prepare, organize, protect and analyze data assets while ensuring that the company meets industry best practices. ? Part of the team that Implemented data privacy policies and compliance with data protection regulations. ? Responsible cleaning, sorting and merging inputted data in the data software QPSMR. ? Responsible for the analysis, acquisition, installation, modification, performance monitoring, support, and improvement of server, network, and storage infrastructures. ? Evaluated and recommended new information security technologies and countermeasures against threats to information or privacy. ? Assisted in performing on-going security monitoring of organization information systems Education BSc. in Computer Science Lagos State Polytechnic - Lagos, NG Skills security, training Certifications/Licenses Driver's License

Name: Laura Durham

Email: grahamkevin@example.net

Phone: (371)588-4980