IT Project Manager IT Project Manager Plano, TX Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience IT Project Manager Texas Instruments, Inc - Dallas, TX February 2015 to Present Project 1: Active Directory segmentation - Budget: $1MM Effort to act on Microsoft security assessment to enable 10 advanced security controls across enterprise domain to prevent: social engineering attacks involving password guessing with whatever information that external force(s) could get their hands on, gaining access to administrators account anonymously, passing credentials such as LMhashes that helps man-in-the-middle attacks& data losses due to session hijacking   Risks that have been managed successfully: successfully: Legacy tools that does not support advanced controls, resource constraints, competing priorities, work disruption, revenue losses   Implemented phased approaches that spanned across 63 different sites, 12 different time zones, 14 solution architects from different IT verticals, 120+ resources from factory, assembly and test sites   Strong emphasis on validation testing and impact analysis winning accolades from Executive Sponsors and Steering team members for implementing this project over a 2 year period without any production downs Education Bachelor's Skills PM, Scrum Master, SDLC, PMP, Waterfall

Name: Mary Mills

Email: joshuawillis@example.org

Phone: +1-349-534-5399