Compliance Risk Management - Governance lead Compliance Risk Management - Governance lead Compliance Risk Management - Governance lead - Copper River Technologies Alpharetta, GA

IT security specialist with the unique ability to transform institutional knowledge of multiple government environments into cyber security expertise   Project leader with proven experience directing all phases of network security compliance while motivating and managing team members, as well as marshalling a complex client/contractor relationship   Extensive experience developing, implementing and assessing security architectures of cloud-based systems in a federal government environment Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Compliance Risk Management - Governance lead Copper River Technologies - Fairfax, VA April 2016 to Present within the USAID for a international contract, supporting 20k+ users   Singular employee wooed back to the State Department/USAID contract from time with OSS   Develops, manages, and implements governance protocol through weekly meetings and management of risk compliance activities   Manage and implement activities as interface between information security officers and assessment teams to ensure compliance with government mandates   Design and administer the Cybersecurity Assessment Management (CSAM) Cyber Security Engineer - Security Modeler and Trainer SBG Technology Solutions - Fairfax, VA February 2015 to April 2016 for Defense client Provided security solutions for network information systems in production by designing, implementing, and analyzing threat models   Designed and documented the Risk Management Framework (RMF)   Trained government and contractor staff in RMF through a virtual training program Information Security Analyst II - Security Administrator Open Systems Sciences - Fairfax, VA August 2008 to February 2015 across all platforms (software, network, and wireless) for the State Department/ USAID client   Designed and implemented, and managed hardware and software vulnerability plan   Conducted analysis of monthly reports on hardware and software vulnerabilities and developed remediation plans   Documented risk assessments reports, based upon hardware and software upgrades, response to critical alerts, the monitoring of events, and application reviews   Design and administer the Cybersecurity Assessment Management (CSAM) Oversaw the governance of vulnerability management and wireless technologies for the agency

Network Administrator/Engineer Hogan & Hartson LLP - Washington, DC February 2007 to August 2008 - Infrastructure manager for global law firm   Administered over 3000 user accounts, 4000+ workstations, and a network enterprise of servers, printers, and wireless hardware, in an Active Directory environment   Managed and monitored a mixed Windows server environment through Tier II support, routine maintenance, daily troubleshooting, and the generation of monthly reports

Network Engineer IT Specialists, LLC/ Innovative Technology Applications, Inc - Springfield, VA September 2000 to February 2007 - Network manager for several disparate clients in the Metro DC area   Designed, implemented and managed the network infrastructure and topography of several different clients on a daily/weekly basis   Generated and maintained game-books as guide for future engineering and troubleshooting needs   Configured client networks at every level, from cable installation to hardware and software implementations in a custom, scalable environment

Network Consultant Wang Global/INET/ACS Government Solutions/CDSI - McLean, VA 1996 to 2000 - Configuration and installation specialist for worldwide government clients   Configured and implemented Global Network Management Solution (NMS) for the Pentagon, Defense Information Security Agency (DISA) and U. S. Senate clients, requiring Top Secret (TS) clearance   Traveled, as an expert, to satellite offices to install and configure software implementations and to train the local staff

Company Commander - Retired as 1st Lieutenant United States Army Reserves - Virginia December 1990 to July 1998   Developed, implemented, and managed the training, equipment, and logistics of over 100 soldiers and reservists   Company commander for Basic Training Battalion Ft. Jackson North Carolina   Training Office for Theater Area Command (TACOM) Ft. Belvoir Virgina

IT Specialist - Chief Information Management Consultants, Inc - McLean, VA 1993 to 1996 troubleshooter and network administrator in-house and consultant for government clients   Managed and implemented the in-house Help Desk as well as on-site technology solutions for government clients, including Commerce, State, and Transportation   Learned, mastered, and updated every aspect of the internal corporate network, from cable and network installation, to rebuilding servers and workstations.   Implemented and administered the Lotus Notes software suite and maintained a hybrid Novell/Wang network with an IBM mini-tower integration Education

Certificate Computer Learning Center (CLC) - Manassas, VA B.A. in Political Science Old Dominion University - Norfolk, VA Skills Risk Management (4 years), Compliance (4 years), Risk Mitigation (7 years)

Name: Sharon Neal

Email: randall30@example.org

Phone: 001-724-357-0424x6852