Work Experience Front- End Web Developer III Endeavor Business Media - Austin, TX March 2019 to Present In the spring of 2019, PennWell was acquired by Endeavor Business Media. As a FED, I complete development requests for UI changes, defects, and redesigns. We utilize Jira for web support, Basecamp for feature development, and Github and Travis for CI/CD.    My current project work for Endeavor utilizes the company built CMS called Base. The frontend is built on HTML, CSS, Sass, BootStrap grid, JS, and Marko.js.    FED Stack: HTML, CSS, Sass, JS, Marko.js, Bootstrap grid    Environment: Docker local and Base CMS Tools:   VS   Code,   Git   Tower,   Github,   Jira,   Basecamp           Organizations: https://github.com/endeavorb2b Front- End Web Developer III Pennwell (now Endeavor Business Media) - Austin, TX October 2014 to March 2019 As a FED, I completed development tickets for UI changes, defects, and redesigns. My tasks included converting responsive/mobile-first development, cross browser testing, internal consults, creating test cases, peer review, and educating Product Managers on effective uses of components within our CMS.    My previous project work was in the AEM CMS environment utilizing HTML, CSS, Sass, BootStrap, vanilla JS, and jQuery, incorporated with Jenkins package management and Git version control. At PennWell, I both maintained legacy content and created projects from scratch.    My largest contributions in this position:    Converting 30+ websites to use Mobile First responsive design and Sass    Establishing front- end best practices and style guidelines    Upgrading the login component (React)    Creating new header and footer components for the next-gen sites    Creating a data-viewing prototype utilizing Vue.js    FED Stack: HTML, CSS, Sass, vanilla JS, Vue.js, jQuery, React  Environment: AEM CMS  Tools: IntelliJ, SourceTree, BrowserStack, Git, Rally  Senior Administrative Assistant Oklahoma State University
