Information Security Analyst Information Security Analyst Information Security Analyst - Barnes and Noble Kings Park, NY IT specialist with 3+ years of professional experience in information technology and security. Highly familiar with a wide variety of security, networking,  and operating system software. Possesses a Bachelor of Science Degree in Information Technology with a focus in Information Security. Core Qualifications    Python    Incident Response    SIEM    Firewalls    Vulnerability Management   End-user support    Linux   Active directory   Security Work Experience Information Security Analyst Barnes and Noble January 2018 to Present    Monitor security tools (Carbon Black, Trend Micro, Whitehat, SEP, and Proofpoint) to identify and assess threats    Review, analyze, and respond to daily security violations/alerts     Assist in access control development, review, and investigation     Perform vulnerability scans using Qualys to execute internal and external vulnerability assessments on over 2,500 servers    Implement, configure, and support security tools (Carbon Black, Sailpoint IIQ, and Sumo Logic.)     Handle firewall change review/management, URL filtering and application control policy    Advise and assist other teams on security related issues Information Security Intern September 2017 to January 2018 Monitored alerts created by security tools (Darktrace, Carbon Black, Attivo, ProtectWise, and Expel) including malicious file uploads, unusual SMB  access, SQL injections, and port scanning    Participated and provide feedback on POC calls for security software with Major League Baseball     Investigated arising incidents caused by malicious activities, and identified false positives     Performed vulnerability scans on MLB's network and web applications    Designed dashboards on Sumo Logic (SIEM) for visualizing events on network    Created, supported, and maintained MLB authentication equipment     Enrolled and managed devices on AirWatch     Maintained open and effective communication with team Information Security Intern SUNY Plattsburgh January 2017 to May 2017 Assisted with development of vulnerability programs and patch management programs    Performed vulnerability scans on SUNY Plattsburgh network    Conducted research into detecting compromised user accounts, digital forensics, and techniques to mitigate and preve nt ransomware    Created a honeypot account that detected 3 phishing attempts against SUNY Plattsburgh    Maintained open and effective communication with staff Helpdesk Technician SUNY Plattsburgh August 2015 to

January 2017 IT Intern May 2016 to August 2016 May 2017 TO August 2017    Provided desktop and application support to MLB and club employees    Assisted with the installation, provisioning, maintenance and inventory of IT equipment, telephones and network lines    Identified and reported system issues    Demonstrated strengths by rapidly diagnosing, troubleshooting, and resolving at least 10 support cases per day    Performed mobile device configuration on both iOS and Android devices    Optimized workflow by properly documenting all calls and problem resolutions in call tracking software (Footprints, now migrated to Service-Now)    Maintained open and effective communication with staff Education Bachelor of Science in Information Technology SUNY Plattsburgh Certified Specialist School related clubs Skills Cyber Security, It Security, Information Security Certifications/Licenses AWS Certified Cloud Practitioner November 2018 to November 2020

Name: Kari Jones

Email: ysoto@example.com

Phone: (734)509-7184