Senior Web Developer Senior Web Developer Lawrenceville, GA A determined professional with seven years of professional development . A great communicator who takes great pride in finding the right solution for difficult problems. Highly motivated and seeking a job in the technology field.

Work Experience Senior Web Developer Current - Lawrenceville, GA June 2016 to Present   Lead and mentor other developers to push continuous, stable updates to multiple large projects   Brought projects through all stages of the software life-cycle.   Refactored old projects to make them more efficient in terms of updating and app performance   Implemented CI/CD workflow on new and existing projects Freelance Developer Freelance/Self employed - Remote February 2012 to June 2016   Developing sites and internal applications for various companies   Managing multiple large scales projects with different clients simultaneously Education Bachelors of Science in Computer Georgia Southern University August 2012 to May 2015 Additional Information Expertise ? Strong background in programming, specifically with system applications and databases with some experience in mobile development. ? Attention to detail and familiar with the identification of potential glitches and errors that hinder performance and security for applications. ? Understanding of implementation of systems within large organisations. ? Developing customized queries to get desired results from databases. ? Developing software from the ground up using specifications from clients. ? Exceptional communication skills feeding an ability to understand and interpret the operational needs of businesses at all levels.   Technical Skills ? Languages: JavaScript, C#, NodeJs, PHP, Html,Css, SQL, Git, ASP.Net ? Frameworks: Angular (AngularJs and Angular),Vue, Laravel, Bootstrap, SemanticUI

Name: Natalie Wilson

Email: dixonamy@example.net

Phone: (456)872-2928