Freelance Full-stack Web Developer Freelance Full-stack Web Developer Freelance Full-stack Web Developer - johnmacintire.com Tucson, AZ Work Experience Freelance Full-stack Web Developer johnmacintire.com - Tucson, AZ March 2016 to Present Personal website - johnmacintire.com (see portfolio) ? MicTV Music Band Website - mictvmusic.com (see portfolio) Both MicTVMusic.com and my own website were redesigned and built using React, with support from Node packages like React-Router and Babel. Each website is integrated with a full CI/CD pipeline built using a CodeCommit, CodeBuild, and CodePipeline to support fast integration of new updates. ? The Closing Cut - theclosingcut.com (see portfolio) TheClosingCut.com is a SPA-style (single-page application) website for a local business-owner looking to enhance his web presence and expand his business in Southern Arizona. The site is coded primarily in Pug (HTML5) and Sass (CSS3) and supported by AWS S3's static website hosting services. Front- end Design Internship johnmacintire.com - Sydney NSW September 2017 to October 2017 Future of Technology Summit & Literatu 2018 Essay Competition Website ? Literatu Australian Essay Competition 2018 (see portfolio) While interning at Literatu I helped finalize designs for the Future of Technology Summit and Literatu's 2017 Essay Competition website. My successful work incorporating new design feedback - in HTML5 and CSS3 - on the initial essay competition afforded me the opportunity to personally design Literatu's own Australian essay competition set to take place in 2018. Lounge Manager Loew's Ventana Canyon Resort - Tucson, AZ September 2016 to September 2017 At Loew's Ventana Canyon I hired and trained new and existing staff, improving the Lounge's troublesome corporate assessment scores. My team consistently ranked as one of the highest scoring outlets on property for customer service and quality of food and drinks during my time at Loew's. My outlet also routinely maintained higher than projected revenue and maintained preferred labor costs. Food & Beverage Manager Arizona Inn - Tucson, AZ March 2015 to September 2016 During my time managing at the Arizona Inn - where I was hired as a server assistant/busser - I developed training programs to improve the readiness of new hires. The training programs I designed included procedures for several different job roles and areas geared towards ready-ing all employees to meet our guest's needs at a AAA Four Diamond standard.
