Application Database Administrator Application Database Administrator Application Database Administrator - Energy Information Administration New Carrollton, MD An enthusiastic and motivated Database Administrator with detailed experience in database architecture, database backup, performance tuning and data security.   Highlights: Exceptional expertise in Oracle databases (12c and 11g) and MS SQL Server   Excellent knowledge of database monitoring and performance tuning   High experience in database installation and configuration principles   Sound debugging and troubleshooting skills   High experience in Linux (Red Hat) and Bash Shell Scripting   Complete understanding of security and backup procedures   High experience in database security, data encryption and backup and recovery Work Experience Application Database Administrator Energy Information Administration September 2014 to Present   Assists in database administration tasks by (installing, monitoring, troubleshooting, recovering, upgrading and patching)   Configures, Installs and upgrade the database server software, and application tools on Linux and Windows servers   Configures and installs Oracle 12c to use ASM as storage   Allocates system storage and planning future storage requirements for the database system   Manages user access and security issues such as roles and privileges   Assists application development team and modelling team to design and develop database objects   Performs database backup, restore and recovery using RMAN   Monitors and optimizes the performance of the database   Performs eyes on glass monitoring of the health of applications as well as the underlying infrastructure. Proactively look for hardware, software alerts or malfunctions. Analyzes dashboards and reporting/monitoring tools to look at trends and patterns in application health and performance   Installs routine security related patches such as Oracle Quarterly Patch Set Updates   Shell scripting and securing the database   Controlling data security, including preventing unauthorized access to the data and protecting against other security threats   Utilizes comprehensive understanding of hardware/software and communication environments and related peripheral equipment. Troubleshoot incidents and identifies root cause using operations, application performance management and event correlation monitoring tools.   Acts as a member of 24x7 escalation point for production support team to diagnose and resolve issues   Assists with documentation of root cause analysis and data quality for significant incidents. Education B. S in Business Administration Bowie State University 2009 to 2013 Skills DATABASE, ORACLE, ORACLE TOOLS, SQL, LINUX, Sql Server, MYSQL, Oracle Dba, Sql Dba, DBA Additional Information :   Running Oracle database on LINUX with ASM   Knowledgeable in database security, auditing, virtual private database and Integrity Constraints   Skilled in using Oracle tools such as SQL Loader, SQL Plus, Data pump Export and Import   Skilled in using Oracle Enterprise Management, Oracle AWR Reports and Active Session History, Automatic Database Diagnostic Monitor (ADDM) and SQL Tuning Advisor for database monitoring and performance tuning   Problem solving skills with the ability to analyze situations, identify existing problems and recommend solutions   Excellent communication skills and organizational skill, team player with the ability to work in a fast paced environment

Name: Mr. Glenn Cohen Jr.

Email: umarquez@example.org

Phone: 291-341-6099x47716