Network Engineer Network Engineer Clinton Township, MI Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Network Engineer Providence School - Daughter of Charity January 2012 to May 2016   Responsible for the design and implementation of network configurations, troubleshooting performance issues, and the configuration of security systems, such as firewall. Install network hardware; i.e., routers, switchers, hubs, network cable, servers, workstations, printers, scanners.   Maintain security of the network   Train others on network utilization and benefits.   Analyze user needs and develop effective network, systems and strategies.   Excellent organizational and time management skills.   Ability to Work on multiple tasks concurrently. Ensures stability and reliability of local area network (LAN)   Responsible for Software installation, maintenance and repair.   Keep computer systems working properly and efficiently.   Handle technical problems. Software Developer MGG Company October 2010 to July 2011   Developed a customized Sales and Contact management Software for "Beirut Terraces" Building for Benchmark Company   Developed a customized software for "Sama Beirut" Building.   Keep track of Software developer.   Lead weekly discussions to track changes made to the program and technical issues that arise during the development process.   Create forms for contact management, project and shop information, buyer's description, reports using Delphi 2010.   Create tables and views using Navicat for MySQL Database Server Education Master's in Computer and Telecommunication Engineer Antonine University (UA) - Baabda 2006 to 2011 Skills Cisco, Active Directory, Security, Vmware, Exchange

Name: Amanda Rodriguez

Email: vanglisa@example.net

Phone: (883)852-5683