Front- end Web Developer Front-end Web Developer Front- end Web Developer - COMSOL - LLC Methuen, MA Work Experience Front- end Web Developer COMSOL - LLC - Burlington, MA February 2016 to Present   Re-designed internal press release tool using better Information Architecture, UX, and UI result- ing in increased efficiency throughout all of COMSOL's offices   Re-designed blog using the current architecture and improving the visual design to provide an updated usable platform for customers to see how the product can be used   Created and translated clean data architecture into user-friendly and accessible user interface components that support the refactoring of our backend technologies   Addressed bugs, user stories, code updates, release highlights, press releases, and business re- lated communications via Jira ticketing system   Created and customized targeted emails for the global business operations   Worked with a team to find solutions to integrate the company's new business format into the website   Re-designed header and footer of comsol.com using the current architecture to improve the user interface Intern Lexington, MA October 2015 to February 2016 Assisted in creation of French version of the company website through the   creation of wireframes   Designed and implemented new landing page for company website Skills Architecture (3 years), HP-UX (3 years), Jira (3 years), UI (3 years), UNIX (3 years)

Name: William Gray

Email: bwebb@example.org

Phone: +1-969-855-8256x746