Systems and Database Administrator / Security Analyst Systems and Database Administrator / Security Analyst Systems and Database Administrator / Security Analyst - Best For Your Practice

Authorized to work in the US for any employer Work Experience Systems and Database Administrator / Security Analyst Best For Your Practice - Laramie, WY November 2014 to Present Specializing in enterprise technology services for medical practices and hospitals. Developing and creating platforms and solutions for some of the largest medical systems in the US.   Maintaining operations and security for 30+ Medical Records Servers and Virtual Machines   Lead developer for large-scale databases migrations with sensitive data   Senior advisor for all data security issues, threat mitigation, network hardening, and incident response   Project manager and research specialist for new product and services development   Creating documentation for best practices and implemented processes IT Security Intern Best For Your Practice - Tacoma, WA May 2015 to August 2015 Establishing and enforcing security standards to support City operations. Responding to threats and incidents to reduce risk, minimize data exposure, and recover systems' operability   Monitored intrusion protection systems, updated detection protocols to protect 5000+ city network systems, and responded to system breaches using log analysis and digital forensics   Analyzed network traffic and researched known vulnerabilities to identify potential threats missed by automated security programs   Reviewed, updated, and drafted 15+ Information Security policies, guidelines, and procedures   Developed roadmap product for the Chief Information Security Officer to assist with forward planning and project prioritization Intelligence Analyst US Special Operations Command - AF September 2013 to August 2014 Afghanistan   Due to sensitive nature and nondisclosure agreements, an organizational description is not available   Enabled 32 successful missions as a counter insurgency targeting analyst in support of Special Operations   Developed and delivered over 200 comprehensive intelligence summaries and products   Utilized highly developed analytical tools, methods, and databases to research 1000+ topics, and identify usable data and patterns   Provided rapid critical analysis of information with timely dissemination of products Senior Security Manager & Intelligence Analyst US Army - JBLM, Washington - Baghdad July 2007 to July 2013 Baghdad, Iraq   Supporting operations through information collection, analysis, and dissemination. Maintaining security of information, personnel, and physical traits to enable mission safety and success.   Governed and implemented security controls to protect $50 million of organizational property and information systems   Supervised daily activities and work priorities for 5 employees   Developed and updated 25+ security policies and procedures, Received 8 commendations for compliance to regulatory standards during quarterly audits, and conducted audits on subordinate departments   Trained 1000+ personnel on security standards, practices, and procedures   Selected ahead of 5 peers to serve as acting shift supervisor   Trained and mentored 8 junior analysts on software tools and analytical methods   Performed 600+ threat assessments and analysis reports for executive officers Education Masters of Cybersecurity & Leadership in Cybersecurity & Leadership University of Washington June 2013 to June 2015 U.S. Army-Information Analysis School November 2007 to March 2008 B.A. in Psychology San Diego Christian College August 2003 to May 2007 Links http://www.linkedin.com/in/farrisjonathan

Name: Willie Joseph

Email: cynthiatorres@example.org

Phone: 920-476-7999x61934