Application Security Analyst Application Security Analyst Application Security Analyst - Koch Business Solutions Atlanta, GA obtain a significant and challenging position where I can use my relationship building experience, leadership and communication skills. I want to grow in an organization where I can be innovative and help improve business processes. Looking forward to assisting a company in achieving its goals. Work Experience Application Security Analyst Koch Business Solutions August 2017 to Present   Leading the support effort supporting 10 different companies within the SAP HR/HCM Module doing SAP Security Production and Non Production, Tableau Security, and Varonis Data Advantage/ Data Privilege.   Develop, create, and maintain the Roles/Authorizations in SAP.   Lead SAP projects from a Security perspective. Work with customers to gather requirements, support implementations, and currently leading a Divestiture project in SAP.   Performing general system monitoring of SAP by creating monthly reports, which are reviewed by leadership.   Provisioning users, create and maintain roles, and break/fix production support in SAP Production and Non Production.   Serve as a liaison between the Business needs and IT Security Abstract reports that are requested by the various businesses as needed.   Oversee the design of SOD rule sets and ensure our risks are limited and mitigated.   Experience working with Enterprise HR Technical Architecture.   Completed a PHI/PII assessment of our SAP HR environment. Ongoing review of training documents to ensure that they are kept up to date.   Manage security business controls and processes. Used GRC and switched to Saviynt.   Training new team member from India on how to support in an SAP HR environment. Associate, Global IT Security Analyst Chep August 2016 to August 2017   Create articles about Security Awareness to support the Wombat Phishing Simulation Program to educate company's employees about cyber security best practices   Manage risks by creating mitigating controls using CPGRC in SMD, then transporting to CEN.   Global support and troubleshooting of SAP Security by resolving authorization issues and SAP access requests.   Run user workshops to collect information then design, develop and maintain SAP, BW, GW (Fiori) and SRM roles   Analyze the current workflow process to develop documentation that helps the business communicate with my team effectively   Conducts and aids in cyber security research with recommendations for action into IT related topics   Train the Global

Access Management Team on how to create and provision users in SAP   Provide guidance and support for global gatekeepers to assist with user Segregation of Duties monitoring and mitigation   Provide support for audit   Provision users in Winshuttle   Continuous learning of TCP/IP and Network Security. SAP Security Analyst Co-Op Koch Business Solutions February 2016 to August 2016   Managed the production queue (Service Now) to handle all the day-to-day requests of customers.   Assisted my team with administering users, profiles, and authorizations in an operational SAP environment.   Designed, developed and maintained SAP security roles   Identified continuous trends through system analysis and reporting, and identified strength and weaknesses to suggest areas of improvement.   Presented power points that I've made to help directors visualize the data that I've monitored within our SAP production and non-production environments.   Performed general system monitoring of SAP security related to user administration   Provided support for Internal and external audit review AppleCare Representative Apple At-Home Advisor May 2014 to November 2014   Worked in a corporate environment, which assisted me in knowing what is expected from leaders in this industry.   Assisted customers with difficult problems they have with apple products using excellent soft skills, customer service, troubleshooting, and technical support skills.   Kept up with the constant changes and upgrades of apple products by studying training materials periodically through the work week.   Learned how to search a document for important information while I instruct a customer on how to fix the problem. Education Bachelor of Computer Information Systems in Computer Information Systems Georgia State University - Atlanta, GA June 2016

Name: Veronica Wright

Email: john00@example.com

Phone: 872.334.2354x17480