Software Developer / Independent Contractor Software Developer / Independent Contractor Sammamish, WA A dedicated and hard-working person with highly effective skills to achieve business objectives. Employs excellent organizational skills, team management, and business writing. A self-motivated innovative software developer with experience in programming and management. Multi-tasking professional with 3 years of experience in software design, development, testing, and integration. Work Experience Software Developer / Independent Contractor 2015 to Present   Developed a visual basic application to controls a three axes motion controller of an automated high-security key-maker. This unit can make high-security car keys for brands like Honda, Mercedes, BMW, etc. MS Access database has been used to store relevant information for each key.   Managed to develop a clear and detailed invoice and maintain payment receipts bi-weekly.   Developed training content and learning materials, such as procedure manuals and introduction manuals, for use by all customers and vendors. I also provided training to new employees and managed testing with technicians on how to use new machines and updates. Education Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Science Sri Revana Siddeshwara Institute of Technology 2008 Visvesvaraya Technological University - Bengaluru, Karnataka Skills ACCESS 2003, ORACLE, SQL, C++, HTML

Name: Keith Roberts

Email: millsdebra@example.net

Phone: 378.452.2221x285